JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

The following very interesting letter is copied from the Williamsport, Penn., Bulletin. It is from the pen of a Pennsylvanian, who says:

In my last I stated that I was at Elizabeth City, in Pasquotank county. It is an old town, but now in ruins. The greater part of it was burned in 1862. The citizens fired their own dwellings, and everything perished in the flames. To-day it is a broken down, dispirited place. It is beautifully located on the Pasquotank river, an arm of the Albemarle Sound, 100 miles north of Cape Lookout; it possesses a fine harbor, and is surrounded by as beautiful a country as the sun shines upon. But the land is held in large bodies, and by long, continued bad farming, is sadly impaired and impoverished. On the west side of the Little River, about ten miles from here, is a plantation of 1,500 acres, on which were worked 200 slaves before the war.

The County of Currituck, next to the Atlantic, a sub of Virginia, has a population of about 6,000. Next adjoining is Camden County, with a population of about 5,000, of which, in 1860, nearly 700 whites over 20 years of age, could not read nor write. Adjoining Camden is Pasquotank, with a population of between 7,000 and 8000. Next is Perquimans, with about 6,000 of a population; and next is Chowan, with a population of about 5,000. These counties, with Gates, which has a population of about 7,000, lie on the north side of Albemarle Sound, and south of Virginia, and east of Chowan river. A description of one is a description of the whole. There is not a newspaper printed in this territory. It is said one seventh of the white population, over 20 years of age, cannot read nor write. But although they are poor, and live without a knowledge of the art of cooking we possess in Pennsylvania, we are their ever welcome guests, and even among this class, a refinement of manners and gentleness characterizing the true gentleman and lady, is everywhere observable, superior to our northern population. Hospitality is pre eminent, and I have not heard a detracting expression against the North since I left Baltimore.

The migty forests, which I will describe when I am more familiar, the broad farms and grand plantations are offered to Northern men at extremely low prices, if they will only agree to come here with their industry, machinery and intelligence, and as a genial planter said to me the other day, "be certain and bring your school marm along, for we must educate our children; that is the first thing to be done."

Bancroft says: "If there are any who doubt man's capacity for self-government let them study the early history of North Carolina."

The Quakers fleeing from religious persecution settled on the banks of the Chowan in 1662, or 20 years before Penn settled on the banks of the Delaware. These early settlers knew the value of liberty and yielded to no unjust laws, nor bowed their knees to no earthly monarch, Carolina first resisted the despotism of the Mother Country. It I recollect aright, the first ship load of stamp paper, in the sloop of-war "Diligence," arrived in Cape Fear river in 1765, but the people (who were not Quakers here) would not allow the paper to be unloaded, and threatened to burn up the Governor's palace, with the Governor, Stamp Master and all participants if it were attempted. The Governor, whose name was Tryon, became so odious that the county named after him was divided and called Lincoln and Rutherford, and the name Tryon expunged.—Here, too, the use of liquor was proscribed—no one using it could become a member of the association of "Regulars."

On the 16th, of May, 1771, the Regulators, who had separately informed the government that their oppression must cease, met the Royal forces in open battle on the banks of Alamance, and here was shed the first blood for our independence.

The Provincial Congress of this State was fully imbued with a love of justice, and on 25th, of August, 1774, boldly asserted that the people had the right to assemble and remonstrate against grievances of any kind. They elected delegates to the Continental Congress, and clearly defined their position; and, on the 20th, of May, 1775, promulgated the famous "Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence." On the 27th, of February, 1776, on the banks of South River, they met the British Tories and defeated them. Up to this period their record was clear, and for a long period after the Old North State was great in the council and mighty in the field, and during the late rebellion, 30,000 of those worthy sons stood steadfast to the loyalty of the government of their fathers. Much of her misfortunes are due to the slaveholders who resided in the Free States, but who secured immense territories here, sent down despotic overseers to tyrannize over a helpless race, and degenerate a noble and patriotic people, and sink the country into the depths of crime and barbarism. "It was the Northern aristocrat and the Yankee taskmaster," said a planter to me, "that made dissolution here," and even during the rebellion, prominent officers among them Gen. B. F. Butler, were guilty of outrages and crimes that must darken the pages of history. There are no means to refute this, even if Congressional Committees can whitewash it over; for as true loyalty and patriotism as ever adorned the pages of history stand here, to-day, the living monument of this assertion. Shame be on Massachusetts for sending this man to Congress, if she do not vindicate his acts or purge herself of his wrongs.

A few miles from here the English first landed on this continent in July 15, 1584; two small ships, commanded by Captains Amidas and Barlow, sent out by Sir Walter Raleigh, were welcomed by the tawny sons of the land, and fed by the amiable Granganimo, the father of Virginia, the king of the Pasquotanks. It is said that Gabota, a Venetian adventurer, discovered Roanoke in 1497.

Virginia Dare, the daughter of Eleanor Dare, the first born of English parents on this continent, saw this beautiful land near here. Madagascar rice was first planted here, which has since become one of the great staples of our land. The natives cultivated corn, tobacco grapes, and plums.—To-day I saw the scuppernong, from a single root, spreading over nearly a quarter of an acre of ground, sending down its twine like rootlets, several feet in length from its stems reaching the ground. Muscatine and the Catawba grapes are natives of this State. Persimmons and plums are everywhere abundant—the former are now in fine eating order, being too astringent before they are frosted, but now rich and palatable. The forest abound with our Northern blackbirds, robins, and the whole tribe of migratory birds, welcomed by the sweet-singing Carolina mocking bird. They feed on the seeds of the pin s, cypress, sweet gum, allspice, gall berry, and seem to take a relish from the fruit of the mistletoe, which grows abundantly in almost every variety of deciduous trees after giving them almost the appearance of evergreens.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evinces the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. ST JOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is pecuniary advantageous to the assured, securing at an increased age, not sickly relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

MISCELLANEOUS

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any stove or range, in any boiler, and in low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

A blast of hot steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all grease from the most close to the boil-to-life. For Factories it is invaluable, as it does not pull them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric thoroughly loosening and extracting the dirt, WITH OUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so surely to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations. We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1869.

GEN. LITTLEFIELD, HIS GROG SHOP, AND HIS PAPER, THE STANDARD.

We hear nothing of this distinguished carpet bagger, but the devil's presence is not always necessary to have his work carried on. The General's grog shop and paper, go swimingly on. Pepper, Pike, Victor Barringer, Todd R. Caldwell, the Lieutenant Governor, Gov. Holden, Coleman, (the Attorney General,) and certain Judges, not now to be named, are said to contribute to the running of his foul paper, by writing for it.

We have no doubt but the virtuous indignation of the people of the State would soon close his printing office, if it were not for the bankrupt and other advertising matter, furnished by the Federal and State governments. No good man should pay for a paper that has attempted to spot and tarnish the purity of his wife, or his daughter.

We call on the virtuous intelligence of the State to stop his paper. We call on Major Harrison, to stop his grog shop, so long run in the Capitol, to corrupt and inebriate the people's Representatives. Members have been known to go into the Capitol cold sober, and come out mandlin drunk. A room in the Capitol was furnished with whiskey, brandy, sherry, port, lemons, sugar and ice. We are informed, that Bill High, colored, mixed the drinks. Backalan, of the Republican Headquarters furnished the liquors, by contract with one of the Editors and Proprietors of the Standard—we mean, Gen. Littlefield. After, or about the time the Chatham Railroad was put through, for which, this Editor of the Standard is said to have received $100,000 dollars, the Editor, Littlefield, gave Mr Thiem a check on New York for 3,000 dollars or thereabouts. Mr. Thiem presented the check in New York for payment—it was dishonored, and the Editor finally paid it at home.

The Editor's shebang, not now in the Capitol, we learn, will have to close for want of funds and his presence; and hence, we may understand, the urgent call of his paper on the hands for no more delay. Expel Swet; hurry to your final action; let the Committee be discharged, and the absconding Editor can return to the City, and put through the bill for the sale of the North Carolina Railroad.

If the Chatham Road can pay him 100,000 dollars to put through that Road, we say, the Raleigh and Gaston and the Chatham Roads, combined, will do a good thing to give him 500,000 dollars in bonds, to accomplish the sale of the North Carolina Road.

Every bar room in the City should feel interested in closing up this Editorial grog shop in the Capitol. Give Mayor Harrison the facts; join him and his police, in a raid upon such public Republican profligacy and prostitution.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.

It seems to be pretty well understood that the proposed amendment to the Constitution, giving universal suffrage to all the States, will pass Congress, and be submitted to the people for ratification—and ten States voting against the amendment kills it. It is a little remarkable, that Ohio, having voted 80,000 against negro suffrage, her Representatives should be found voting for the proposed amendment. We have no idea that Ohio, or that a majority of the Northern States will vote for the alteration of the Constitution, notwithstanding they say negro suffrage in the South is right and proper. This Reconstruction is the veriest farce ever perpetrated by any people.

JUDGE CANTWELL SHUT OUT.

Our loyal friend, Thos. W. Womble, Esq., of Chatham, honored us with a visit, yesterday. He reminded us of Judge Cantwell's visit to Pittsboro, in 1861. Then, Womble was deputy Sheriff, and the oldest public officer in the county of Chatham. Cantwell went, cockade in hat, to make a secesh speech; he ordered Womble to light up the Court house for his performances. Womble locked the door, and thus shut out the Judge.

Now, Womble is disloyal, and can't hold the position of constable, while Cantwell is truly loyal, and is made a Judge.

NERVOUS, VERY.—The House of Representatives of North Carolina now closes its doors to all visitors. Visitors must take to the gallery, and in going hither, it is understood they pass by the door of the "third house."

If this arrangement of excluding lobby members had been entered into some few weeks ago, it is very probable that some hundred thousand dollars might have been saved to the State—for instance, in the way of the "wear and tear" of the beautiful carpet that adorns the floor!! Therefore, we are not inclined to complain at the late idea of excluding the noisy crowd who have been toasting their idle shins at the expense of the State.

TUM HENDERSON Jedge is wide awake to the importance of an early bid for the starting point of the new Railroad to branch off from the Raleigh & Gaston road, West.

GEN. LITTLEFIELD'S PAPER.

The General's paper says, the Sentinel is constantly charging "that Governor Holden writes for the Standard. We are authorized, by the Governor, to state that he does not write for the Standard, because, among other reasons, he can't find time to write for any paper." The article was written by the assistant Editor of the Standard, who, however, is much flattered that his article should be deemed worthy of so distinguished an Editor as Gov. Holden."

Now, who is the assistant Editor of Gen. Littlefield's paper? The Reporter, Mr. Pike, tells it, that he is proud to have his articles attributed to Gov. Holden. So, here are two persons claiming the honor of Gov. Holden's articles. Now, who does write the articles attributed to the Governor, the Reporter or the assistant Editor?—Which shall we believe? Allow us, John, to flatter your assistant and your Reporter again, by saying, to some minds it is as clear that the Governor wrote the articles, as it is that Judge Reade wrote the legislative address. But, the Governor says he does not "write for the Standard." That don't help the truth at all. The Governor promised Dr. Jones, of Johnston county, the Assistant's place at the Asylum, but Dr. Fuller got it. The Governor told Mr. Thos. Webb that he was sorry Gov. Graham had not filed his petition earlier, that he might have been pardoned and give the State and people the benefit of his services in Convention. When he made this declaration, he had already endorsed on Gov. Graham's petition, "I recommend suspension in this case." The Governor promised that he would have Gov. Graham pardoned, that he might take his seat in the Legislature.—Gov Graham received every vote cast in the county to represent the people of Orange in the Senate. Every Senator signed a petition, asking President Johnson to pardon him, that he might take his seat in the Senate. Judge Settle and Gen. Leach waited on the Governor that he might join with the Senate in the petition, and the Governor declined to join with the Senate.

So, excuse us, John, if we require some better proof than the Governor's denial.—Besides, John, when you edited the Conservative, did you not inculcate the notion, that the Governor was not to be believed, and that Vance was a hero as well as a saint?

John, send us a file of your old Conservative, and we will give our readers some of your refreshing denunciations on your new saint, the Governor.

John, we can't believe him; and, if you believe what you wrote in the Conservative, you can't believe him.

NO ACTION YET.

The Senate, yesterday, did not, as was supposed it would have done, finally determine the case of Senator Robbins. We understand that much bitterness was exhibited by the Radicals, and that General Brogden, the "bright particular star"—the father of the "covered himself all over with glory," in a written speech, and in his amendment to the resolution of censure, then pending. Go it, Curtis! Do your level best, and "quit your conscience" like a good citizen. Your amendment, or your substitute, General, caused a fluttering among the victorious pigeons, and adjourned the Senate quite as effectually as did De Weese's first speech the House of Representatives, in Washington City.

SUPREME COURT—OPINIONS.

CONDITION OF TEXAS.—The St. Louis Times has the following truthful paragraph:

A letter sustaining the report of General Reynolds as to the lawless condition of Texas, is printed over the signature of Gov. Pease, of that State. The truth simply is what is termed the lawless condition of Texas is the direct and natural result of the despotism which has been fastened upon the State by Congress in defiance of the rights and wishes of the people, further aggravated by its being in the power and under the authority of such creatures as Pease.

The "colored people" of Washington are exercised over the report that they are to be excluded from the inauguration ball.—One of them writes to the papers that he "can raise his ten dollars and has as good clothes as any white man that will be there and don't see why the negroes should get the cold shoulder now, when they were taken to the bosom while the work was going on." He is very anxious to know whether the blacks will be insulted if they present themselves for admittance. They ought to send for Wendell Phillips to head the procession. Perhaps "the man that gives brains to the radical party," would be able to give it accordant manners.

LET US HAVE PEACE.—This is what Gen. Grant says, but Senator Sumner is apparently opposed to anything of the kind. As already stated, he has introduced a bill in the Senate imposing a penalty of two years' hard labor upon all persons who shall assume to exercise official function in the Southern States in violation of the fourteenth constitutional amendment. In other words, any Southern man who at any period of his life held an office that required him to take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and subsequently engaged in war against the United States, or gave aid and comfort to those who did so engage, and now accepts any office, State or federal, is to be deemed a felon, and put to hard labor in the penitentiary or State prison. "Let us have peace," Mr. Sumner.—Balt. Sun.

MAJ. GEN. JUBAL EARLY.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, writing of some of the prominent Confederates still abroad, says of this gallant and maligned gentleman:

Old Jubal Early, Major General to Lee and Stonewall Jackson, he who stormed Winchester, in the campaign of 1861, and burned a portion of Chambersburg in retaliation for the burning of Jackson, Miss., and other places, went abroad at the close of the war, and has remained by choice an exile. I don't know whether he accepted a parole or not; I think he did; but most certainly he did not "accept the situation." He is a proud, defiant, unyielding man—slow to take a position and very tenacious of it when once taken. He was an original Union man, and obstinately resisted secession until Mr. Lincoln's proclamation was issued, and then he went for secession, and the Confederacy may have had an abler, but certainly no stouter soldier or more steadfast adherent. He lived before the war in the country south of the James river, and I suppose must have managed to save some little property from the wreck. I should take him to be about the last man in the world to make a cent in a foreign land. His brief book on the Virginia campaign of 1864 is pronounced by Lee's staff, and I believe is considered by Lee himself, as the only book of any real value on the Confederate side; it is certainly very terse and perspicuous, but the nature of the man is shown by the fact that he gave the copy right to help the memorial associations of Virginia in collecting and marking the graves of the Southern soldiers who fell on the battle fields of that State. Said he: "Perhaps I might have made something by the sale of the work; but I wanted to keep clear of all suspicion of writing a book for money." And thus proud, but manly and sincere, old Jubal hangs out on the Canada side of the frontier, occasionally writing a letter about the war, as, for example, the other day, to prove that Jackson never proposed the night attack, bowie knife, bare arm and breast business—which the Muse of History, that "lying bitch," as Walkins Leigh called her—has attributed to him. I think old Jubal will come back at his leasure when the fit takes him. A man must have a good deal of meanness in his nature—be he Radical, Democrat or Southerner not to sympathize with such a nature.

THE "last words" of the Fortieth Congress—the expiring utterance of a legislative body the like of which for folly and fanaticism the world has not seen—will probably be expressed in some new proposition to add some new patch to the tattered federal Constitution.

After "manhood suffrage" comes "womanhood suffrage," which even now finds a Senatorial champion in a Senator for Tennessee. Then will come "boyhood suffrage" and "girlhood suffrage." Will the "march of progress" stop here? Babyhood suffrage will yet remain unprovided for.

The Democratic members of Congress are pursuing the right course in demanding that whatever new amendments to the federal Constitution may be proposed, shall be submitted for ratification to a direct vote of the people. It is not only the people who have the right, but it is the people only who have the power, to shape the future government.

One of the ablest thinkers of the country has well and truly said that no government in the world ever took a single step forward. No government ever advanced civilization by so much as the breadth of a hair.—No government ever existed that did not do much—very much—to retard civilization. Every advancement that government has ever made has been made reluctantly, in obedience to the demands of popular enlightment, or to the force of popular uprising. And it is most remarkable that every such legislative advancement has consisted solely in undoing what government had previously done.

The government of this country has been engaged during a period of eight years in making laws which the people, during the next quarter of a century, at least, will be struggling to unmake; laws ostensibly for the protection of the people's rights, whose highest rights are only protected when freed from the meddling interference of government. Yet government—such is the love of exercising power in those who possess it—goes on multiplying acts of interference and refuses to submit its enactments to the verdict of popular opinion. There is really no where in the world a less enlightened body of legislators than compose the majority in the Fortieth Congress of the United States. —Chicago Times.

I believe that within three weeks all will be amicably and liberally arranged without more blood. The slaves freed by the revolutionists will remain so. The arms of those who surrender will be left with them. They will form part of the militia of the country. The people will vote their own taxation. Such, at least, is the plan of settlement now occupying the commissioners representing both sides, and peace, once established, will endure as long as the provisional government at Madrid can be kept true to the pledges of revolution in Spain and when that falls, Cuba falls forever from the lap of Spain.

DIED:

At his residence, near Falkland, Pitt County, N. C., of Typhoid Pneumonia, on the 28th day of January, Mr. GEORGE W. WOOTEN, in the 53rd year of his age.

The angel of Death has again been in our midst, and taken a beloved citizen from us to a land beyond the grave, to meet his reward at the hands of a merciful God.

In the full bloom of manhood and usefulness, a good man is stricken down, and the tears of bitter anguish made to trickle down the cheeks of a bereaved wife and loving children, and a cloud of sadness and sorrow to spread over the hearts of all.

From our childhood we have regarded Mr. Wooten as one of the best men we ever knew.—Honest, quiet, industrious, warm-hearted and sincere, the breath of reproach or suspicion was never breathed upon his name. In all the relations of life, whether in the privacy of his own home or as a man of the world, he sustained an unblemished character. His hospitality was cordial, his friendship unselfish, and his benevolence and acts of charity as liberal as his means would allow. To his wife and little ones he was exceedingly kind and affectionate, and indulged them in everything they could reasonably ask for, so far as this world's goods are concerned. In his death they have lost their best earthly friend: but there is One above who has promised to be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless. May they submit with reverent awe and Christian resignation to His decree, and with faith and hope commit their destiny into His hands.

"Heaven oft in mercy smites
When the blow severest is."

We do not know that Mr. W. was connected with any Church, but he lived ever mindful of the time when he should lie down in the grave, and in the firm belief of an overruling Divinity who shapes our ends, whose eye is always upon us, and who will reward us according to our deeds. Let us cherish the hope that his sun of life has set on earth to shine brighter in a better world.

Life's duty done, as sinks the clay
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While Heaven and earth combine to say
How blest the righteous when he dies.

Importance of Life Insurance.

Read another forcible illustration of how the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY pays its losses:—

"Received, at Raleigh, N. C., Jan 29th, 1869 of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Conn Mutual Life Ins Co., two thousand five hundred and forty five dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 84,031, and dividend on the life of my late husband, ——, and I hereby surrender all my right, title and interest in the same to said Company.
(Signed) ——, of Newbern, N. C."

We refrain from publishing the names of the parties, because we do not think it advisable to publish one's private business, but will state, although the party had not been insured quite five months, yet received a 50 per cent. dividend on $45 on the premium paid. The dividends of this Company have been larger than those of any other, averaging over 50 per cent. annually, from the beginning and the present dividend (Feb 1st, 1869,) exceeds the average. On this twenty-fifth annual dividend the Directors have, besides declaring a 45 per cent. dividend upon the premium paid, declared a per centage dividend on the surplus reserve arising from interest, which increases the policy holder's dividend annually, and on some policies pays over 70 per cent. this year. They have also adopted a reduced all-cash premiums table with increased annual dividends.

This company is purely mutual; there are no Stockholders to absorb its earnings. It offers abundant security in a large accumulated fund of over TWENTY-THREE MILLIONS DOLLARS, derived alone from its business, and has $154 assets, accurately invested for every $100 of its liabilities.—Its plans of business comprises all the desirable forms of insurance.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirate who preys upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the inducement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps almost received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of he undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a variety of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is fr

THE DAILY exposure to sale, at the Court House, of notes and accounts, and other effects, tell a tale of poverty and suffering among our people, to an extent never before experienced in North Carolina. It is a difficult matter to say who is in a solvent condition. Among the great mass of notes exposed for sale, there are very few that command more than a few cents on the dollar. The want of confidence in the ability of the makers render them worthless.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE—RADICAL DECEPTION OF THE COLORED PEOPLE.—When the radicals are asked, says the Philadelphia Age, to explain their reasons for declaring negro suffrage in the South, and yet voting against it in the North, they point to the vote in Iowa and Minesota, where the colored amendment was adopted. But look at the facts in these cases: Iowa over 19,800 for negro suffrage, and by that great achievement conferred the right of suffrage on 153 negroes. Minesota gave over 9000 majority for negro suffrage, and thus nobly conferred the right to vote on thirty-seven distinguished persons of color. But radicalism is not so liberal where negroes are more abundant. In Missouri it could have conferred the right to vote on about 171,000 negroes, and although the State gave a large majority for Grant, it rejected negro suffrage by a majority of near 20,000. The electorial vote of Connecticut and Ohio was cast for Gen. Grant, but these States, like Missouri, have repudiated the negro theory with reference to an alteration of the elective franchise. Where there are few negroes in the North to vote, the radicals are willing to give them the ballot. But, where many would crowd to the polls, the privilege is withheld.

FARTHER SMITH.—A man calling himself Father Smith, and representing himself to be a Catholic Priest, has been playing a sharp game through the Valley. He pretended to have $5,000 in gold, which he deposited in Richmond, and managed by a slick tongue to "get" several merchants in Harrisonburg to a considerable amount. He also "went back" on Mr. McQuade, of New Market, for some money, and stole his wife's breastpin. He was followed to this place by several persons, and arrested as he was celebrating mass at the house of Mr. Saurbaugh, and some of the property recovered. Strange to say, he made Mr. Saurbaugh believe it was a mistake, and borrowed five dollars of him. He soon had his suspicious aroused, and following him to Strasburg, recovered his money.—Shenandoah Herald.

THE RING—THE PENITENTIARY FRAUD—THE REPORT OF THE PURCHASING COMMITTEE, &c.

Mr. Editor:—Can you throw any light upon what is to be done about the location of the Penitentiary? Can you throw any light as to the course the Legislature will take in reference to the false and fraudulent report of the Committee who were appointed to locate the Penitentiary? Are they to go unpunished? What will be done with the Ring which was formed to have certain members put upon the Committee, including C. L. Harris, Superintendent of Public Works.

Now since the investigating Committee have discharged their duty and made their report, it is evident that this swindle was intended from the beginning, and is it to be borne by our suffering State in order to enrich the pockets of such men as Colonel Heck, Pruyn, General Littlefield and others? Now, we are informed that three of the Ring met together in company with a Senator and drew the bill conferring all this power upon six men, with C. L. Harris included; that after the bill was drawn and passed upon by the said three members of said Ring, it was given to Mr. Burns who offered it, and it passed both Houses. The Ring managed to get such men appointed on the Committee as they wanted, with the exception of two whom they did not fear, as the majority ruled. The Superintendent of Public Works was to act as engineer to run the machine. On Thursday before the meeting of the Legislature, they made a location, and on that day the child was born, and Lockville declared the place of his nativity. The following Monday the Legislature met, the Governor's message proclaimed that Lockville was an admirable place for the Penitentiary, &c. Up to this time the Ring, the Deep River Manufacturing Company, had not purchased the 8,000 acres; they had only ascertained the price it could be bought for. The Senate called for the report of the Committee, having seen so much in the Standard about this beautiful tract of 8,000 acres, and which was made to read as if the same was immediately adjoining the city of Lockville. These publications were made, as we think, by order of the Ring. The Committee then asked for time to make their report, and the Ring began to think there was danger ahead, and immediately sent an agent out to Dr. McCoy's, and in crossing the river came near losing his life; he swam his horse and made the trip in time—returned to Raleigh,—all is right and the trade is made. C. L. Harris, excited; majority of the Committee, excited—all for fear the matter would not go through. One of the Ring, Colonel Heck, draws up the report, and the same member of the Ring who drew up the bill for Mr. Burns; the report was examined by the Ring, then pronounced perfect, and the Committee signs it, except one member who makes a minority report. Next, the question of pay comes up, and the Ring decides that our Superintendent of Public Works must issue his order on the Treasuret in order to make a sure thing of it, and complete the fraud. The report, that argumentative, convincing and logical report, which says that they purchased 8,000 acres of land containing granite stone, if not the philosophers, which old sleepy had searched for so long at $12.50 per acre, making $100,000. This amount then was due for the 8,000 acres at the price of $12,50 per acre, which they report they paid for it. Did they pay $100,000 for it, and if so, why did they or Col. Harris draw an order on the Treasurer for $65,000 in favor of Colonel Heck, the Grand Centre of the Ring, and then draw another order on the Treasurer for $44,000 in favor of his friend Pruyn, who builds the stockade at $30 per thousand feet for the lumber. Now what became of the $44,000? What was it for? Who got it? Was it commissions paid by the Ring to certain gentlemen for aiding them to practice a fraud upon the State, yes, upon the whole tax paying people of the State. Will the Legislature let the matter pass unnoticed? Will they not declare this conspiracy to practice a fraud upon the State, null and void? Will they not order suit at once against Col. Heck, Pruyn and Gen. Littlefield, for the value of the bonds?

Look at the matter, gentlemen of the Legislature, and see if something ought not to be done. Look at the report of your Investigating Committee and compare it with that of the Purchasing Committee, consisting of such men as James Harris, of Wake, colored, Col. C. L. Harris, Superintendent of Public Works, of Wake, Renfrow, of Halifax, John Hyman, of Warren, Downing, of somewhere, and see if a fraud has not been practic d, and if so, who did it? Look into this $44,000 which was paid to Pruyn, by order of our Superintendent of Public Works; let the Investigating Committee be reinstated and examine certain parties upon oath, touching that matter, and somethings will probably be disclosed that will not startle me much, but will afford grounds for you to act. Gentlemen of the Legislature, take this matter into consideration and let the tax payers have justice, otherwise, meetings will be called over the State, and repudiation will be carried at our next election by an overwhelming majority. Inquire if C. L. Harris, Superintendent of Public Works has an interest in Pruyn's stockade contract.

TAX PAYER.

PROGRESS OF SCIENCE.—An interesting and eloquent lecture on this subject was delivered by Dr. Buchanan, of Kentucky, (author of Dr. Buchanan, of Antiropology,) at Lebanon Hall, on Wednesday evening, January 20, in which a graphic sketch was given of the numerous improvements in inventions now in progress. By reference to scientific calculations he demonstrated that the increase in the productive forces of mankind would in time not only increase the general wealth and comfort, but pay off the war debt of nations, and reduce the hours of labor. Material progress he considered the foundation of moral progress, which was going on at a slow rate, but equal certainty, and would be guided by a true science of man to a higher social condition. The speaker frequently rose into flights of eloquence which sent a thrill through his auditory. His denunciation of war and his description of the better portion of our nature could not be surpassed. He was listened to with the most intense interest throughout, and the audience left the hall with, we trust, a clearer and more hopeful idea of the causes which operate for the progress of mankind.—New York Mercury.

The Cincinnati Times publishes a special dispatch from Boston, which says:

"Gen. Banks is in Boston. He says that the story that he was ordered to supercede Grant at Vicksburg is true in every particular. Gen. Halleck signed the orders, Banks kept it secret, and never even told his wife, and the story was started in Grant's headquarters, when it was made public a few days ago. Grant sent two general officers to Banks, and he delivered to them the orders he had received while at Port Hudson. The orders are now in Grant's possession, and will be given to the public soon."

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT APPLICATION will be made to the present General Assembly of North Carolina for an Act of incorporation for the Town of Durham, in Orange County. Jan 23-4t

HORRORS OF RECONSTRUCTION.

One would suppose that the most ardent admirer of radical reconstruction, would find in the experience of Southern States which have passed the magic ordeal, such "food for thought" as would at least suggest a doubt as to the reality of those blessings so commonly regarded as inseparable from that condition. Those beatific visions of happiness and prosperity which the "truly loyal" so rapturously describe, might be regarded as "mere figments of the brain" if contrasted with the horrors daily occurring in these communities which are now the blessed recipients of Congressional legislation.

Without pausing to portray the delecta ble condition of Brownlow's domain, where daily outrage and nightly violence, mark the era of returning peace and amity, without lingering to note the vacillating steps with which the craven Holden essays to follow in the wake of the bolder but not more malignant ruler of Tennessee, or to describe the outrages, the arsons, the murders, the rapes, which with unvarying monotony attest the blessings which, in every reconstructed State, flow from governments administered by "loyal citizens," we would, in all candor, ask of those gentlemen whose new born zeal in the cause of reconstruction has hurried them forward with reckless speed to the attainment of their desire, whether the harrowing scenes now daily occurring in "reconstructed" Arkansas, will not suffice to disturb their equanimity and demand a pause in the hurry and precipitancy which mark the character of the "late movement." A whole community placed under martial law by a carpet-bag Governor, drum-head courts martial, military execution and armed occupancy of whole sections of the State—these, under any circumstances, embrace an array of evils, before which the human mind instinctively recoils with horror and dismay; but how greatly are these feelings in enalled, how immeasurably are these horrors increased, when we remember that the "military" who lord it over Arkansas to-day, and live at free quarters upon her citizens, are composed mainly, if not exclusively of NEGRO SOLDIERS—of ruffians recruited for this very service by reason of their anxiety to participate in the carnival of rapine and blood promised by the "loyal" partisans of "reconstructed" government. When we read in the reports daily coming up from that unfortunate State, of houses burned, property destroyed, citizens shot, and defenceless maids and matrons ravished by brutal negro soldiery, and when we know that absolutely no redress is afforded for these fiendish atrocities, when we find an officer of the army sent out for the purpose of examining into these outrages, coolly reporting that martial law was required to protect the loyal citizens, and that, under its potent influence quiet is being rapidly restored in those sections where disorders were formerly committed, and especially when we find this official referring to acts of violence committed on women and murders on men as "a few examples of insurbordination and lawlessness on the part of their soldierly, who, in many localities, were of necessity composed exclusively of negroes," the soul absolutely sickens at the reflection, that any community in our land should be thus shamelessly abandoned to the mercy of such a banditti. And yet this is done, in a "reconstructed" State—these scenes are enacted where "Congressional policy" has had its perfect work, and a "restored sovereignty" is proudly cited as evidencing the wisdom and efficiency of Radical statesmanship.—Lynchburg News.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN, Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and such stuff. What a mighty set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at H. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
